

Longwood University
Primary Applied Music Study
Levels of Competency Necessary to Graduate

Bachelor of Arts in Visual and Performing Arts, Concentration in Music with Emphasis in piano Pedagogy

In this program, students must complete MUSC 483, and present a senior half-recital (25 minutes of music). Students are expected to master selected repertoire at a level of complexity similar to or exceeding that found in the examples given below:

A sonata by Mozart, Haydn, or Schubert

A first movement or complete early sonata by Beethoven

Character pieces by Chopin, Schumann, or Brahms

Sets of pieces or multi-movement works by Debussy, Ravel or another 20-century composer